Transport

Public transport:

Prague has dense network of public transport with frequent connections, and we recommend using it. You can buy tickets in newspaper shops, in automatic machines on the stops or at the airport in the PT stand. Prices of the tickets are derived from the time validity, but all of them are transfer tickets, that allow you to change the type of transport you are using. Remember to validate your ticket!

- 30 minutes - 24 Kč (cca 0.9 €)
- 90 minutes - 32 Kč (cca 1.2 €)
- 1 day - 110 Kč (cca 4€) , valid for 24 hours from validation time
- 3 days - 310 Kč (cca 11.3 €) valid for 72 hours from validation time

You can also look up the timetables and connections here:

<http://spojeni.dpp.cz/ConnForm.aspx?tt=PID&cl=E5> or simply type dpp.cz. For your smartphone, install Jizdni Rady app.

Connection from the airport:

Take bus 119 from Terminal 1 or 2 to Nádraží Veleslavín stop, where you can change to other buses, trams and metro.

Night transport

Subway only works until slightly after midnight, and trams and buses runs on different routes and less frequent (cca every 30 min) schedule in the night. Same tickets as during the day are used though. All night trams go to central station Lazarská, where you can change if needed.

Taxi:

e.g. +420 222 111 000, +420 226 000 226, Uber

Parking:

Parking options might be quite limited in Prague, we cannot promise you available parking spots.
